All chapters	Dispositive motions in adversary proceedings	See below

Dispositive Motions in adversary proceedings: With one (1) exception normal motion practice rules apply to dispositive motions in adversary proceedings, including motions for judgment on the pleadings, motions to dismiss and summary judgment motions. The exception: in preparing and serving the Notice of Motion, please do not assign a hearing date. You may leave that line on the form blank or write in "not applicable." Hearing dates on dispositive motions may be assigned by the judge, but only after the responses to such motions have been filed. Additional copies of such motions and any accompanying memoranda may be delivered to chambers (but courtesy copies are not required).
